

Confidential

Students can see the Counsellor for a variety of reasons. Everyone finds themselves in difficult situations at some time in their lives.

Sometimes students want to speak to someone who is professional, Confidential and separate from family and friends

Lloyds International College Counselling Service

See your SSO or Academic Manager for an appointment
with the Counsellor

Its free of charge.

Who can see the Counsellor

All English and VET students enrolled in the Colleges can access the Counsellor.

Colleges include:

- Lloyds International College
- North Sydney English College

When you see the Counsellor

When you want to speak to someone who is professional, confidential and separate from friends and family.

All information that is discussed with the Counsellor is private. If you would like to bring a friend or family member with you it is OK.

The Counsellor is here to help you and listen to your concerns.

Why you see the Counsellor

If you are having personal difficulties, or just want to talk about:

- Ongoing health issues
- Issues with your family overseas
- Relationships
- Domestic violence issues
- Gambling or drug and alcohol problems
- Ongoing personal problems
- Moral support
- Work related issues

If you would like to make an appointment to see the Counsellor, please speak with the SSO or the Academic Director.
